

G13 Clifton Beck

Clifton Beck is a north-south orientated river valley which drains the upland Coalfield Edge to the north. It comprises steep wooded valley sides with areas of wooded pasture and pasture fields defined by stonewalls and hedges. Overall it is a small scale landscape which feels deeply historic. To the south of Bailiff Bridge settlements becomes more prevalent.